Dear Noel – Settle a bet. For that goal, did you dink it, or bend your back?

Noel replies – Nancy swears I hopped it on the knee twice on the run-in. Far be it from me to say.

Dear Noel – What does Knowledgeable Noel make of the knowledge economy?

Noel replies – As Nancy told the Dragons in the Den, I know nothing about it.

Dear Noel – What are you doing to honour the 40th anniversary of Scor?

Nancy replies – Surely that question should be phrased the other way around.
